

Click here if you are having trouble viewing this message.

NEWSLETTER

December 2020

Welcome to the December edition of the Ticket to Work newsletter. The theme for this month is 'collaboration'. As we approach the end of this historic and challenging year, we acknowledge the ongoing efforts of the Ticket to Work networks around Australia. We continue to hear life changing stories, with thanks to the collaborative efforts of the networks.

Collaboration is at the heart of Ticket to Work, as we take a connected approach to improving employment outcomes for young people with disability. Working together will be particularly important during COVID-19 recovery, to make sure those doors to employment swing back open on the other side of the pandemic.

This month we are pleased to share the new Ticket to Work Collaboration Guide along with a recently commissioned Collaboration research paper. You will also find a case study video featuring a young Ticket to Work participant that has landed a job in line with his passions and interests.

The Ticket to Work team wishes you a happy Christmas, we look forward to connecting with you in the new year.

Visit the Ticket to Work website for further information.

Launching the new Collaboration Guide!

Ticket to Work have released a new Collaboration Guide entitled 'Working together: Improving School to Work Transitions for students with disability.' Designed to help identify the key elements of good practice in collaborating with partners to improve school to work transitions for young people with disability.

Access the guide

Case study video: Kyle, cooking up his career as a chef

Watch Kyle Mitchell's story, a young man with Autism and Dyslexia, working as a Chef's assistant. Kyle is following his passion for cooking with plans to become a qualified chef.

Watch the video

Collaboration Research Paper

Ticket to Work has commissioned a research paper entitled 'Collaboration – the key to unlocking a successful future for young people with disability' by Dr Denis Meadows. The paper examines the literature and explores interagency collaboration as a mechanism to improve post-school transitions for students with a disability.

Access the research

Watch Richard Luecking - Disability at Work Virtual Conference

Watch international guest speaker Richard Luecking at the 2020 Virtual Conference sharing his expertise on school to work transition for students with disability.

Richard Luecking is the Co-Director of the Center for Transition & Career Innovation at the University of Maryland in the United States.

Watch the video

Ticket to Work Network Analysis Report

Read the findings from a partnership assessment of nine Ticket to Work networks operating in five Australian states. It identifies key successes and challenges of Ticket to Work partnerships and how they work to support young people with disability.

Access the research

Contact the Ticket to Work team

Please contact us if you'd like to support Ticket to Work, get involved, or if you'd like more information on anything in this newsletter!

Michelle Wakeford

National Ticket to Work Manager

National Disability Services

Phone: 0413 750 745

Email: Michelle@tickettowork.org.au

Ticket to Work website

Click here to unsubscribe.