

NEWSLETTER

June 2021

Welcome to the parents and supporters edition of the Ticket to Work newsletter!

We bring you our new learning resources for parents and families, to provide you with the support and knowledge required to help young people with disability lead a meaningful and fulfilling life.

Family involvement is key to a successful transition to employment for young people with disability. Often becoming their champion, instilling self-confidence to follow their aspirations. Though, we find many parents do not know where to start in employment preparation, which is why we have researched and developed a range of resources to assist parents, carers and other supporters to be career allies and support the transition from school to adult life.

We are pleased to have launched a dedicated 'resources for parents' page on our website.

Visit the Ticket to Work website for further information.

Watch the parents video

We asked parents and family members about their experiences in supporting a young person with disability in their journey from school to employment. Watch the

An interactive guide for parents

When we asked young people who had successfully transitioned into employment 'who their greatest support was' 80 per video to find out about their experiences and the changes they have seen in their young person. While you are there, have a look at the other stories about parents.

Watch the video and access the stories

Inclusion Australia: Everyone can work video

This video by Inclusion Australia is about the things families and young people can do during high school to get ready for life after school and getting their first job in open employment.

Watch the video

Research: Parent engagement in school to work transition

This paper explores the literature around parents experiences, supporting a young person with disability transitioning from school to work. It also explores the experiences of parents involved in Ticket to Work, and the network members that cent said their families. Clearly, family involvement is key to employment success for a young person. This guide is designed to assist parents and families to support a young person with disability to live a meaningful life.

Access the interactive guide

The golden rules video series

This video series provides some golden advice for parents and families, Informed by the research, these three short videos show how to use the six golden rules as a guide to support students with disability in the transition from school to employment.

Video 1 - The golden rules

Video 2- Developing a vision for the future

Video 3 - How to get from here to there engage with them.

[Access the research \[PDF\]](#)

[Access the research \[accessible\]](#)

Contact the Ticket to Work team

Please contact us if you'd like to support Ticket to Work, get involved, or if you'd like more information on anything in this newsletter!

Amy Scott

Partnership and development coordinator

National Disability Services

Phone: 0479 197 134

Email: amy@tickettowork.org.au

Ticket to Work website

Click here to unsubscribe.